Definition

A person is defined as having a disability if they have a physical or mental impairment that has an adverse, substantial and long-term effect on their ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities.

The Equality Act 2010 means that schools cannot unlawfully discriminate against pupils because of their age, disability, gender reassignment, race, religion or belief, sex or sexual orientation, pregnancy or maternity, marriage or civil partnership.

Roles and responsibilities

Staff members will act in accordance with the school's Accessibility Policy and Accessibility Plan at all times.

The headteacher, in conjunction with the governing board/MAT or a select committee, will create an Accessibility Plan with the intention of improving the school's accessibility.

All staff members and governors will partake in whole-school training on equality issues related to the Equality Act 2010.

Designated staff members will be trained to effectively support pupils with medical conditions, for example, understanding how to administer insulin.

Accessibility Plan

The Accessibility Plan will be structured to complement and support the school's Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND) Policy.

The Accessibility Plan will be presented as a freestanding document.

The school's Accessibility Plan demonstrates how access will be improved for pupils with disabilities, staff, parents and visitors to the school within a given timeframe.

The plan has the following key aims:

- To increase the extent to which pupils with disabilities can participate in the curriculum

- To improve and maintain the school's physical environment to enable pupils with disabilities to take advantage of the facilities and education on offer

- To improve the availability and delivery of written information to pupils, staff, parents and visitors with disabilities.

The intention is to provide a projected plan for a three-year period ahead of the next review date.

If it is not feasible to undertake all the plans/works during the lifespan of the Accessibility Plan, some items will roll forward into subsequent plans.

The Accessibility Plan will be used to measure the necessity of making reasonable adjustments in order to accommodate the needs of people with disabilities where practicable.

The Accessibility Plan will be used to advise other school planning documents and will be reported upon annually in respect of progress and outcomes.

Both the Accessibility Policy and Accessibility Plan will be published on the school website.

The school will collaborate with the MAT in order to effectively develop and implement the plan.

An access audit will be undertaken by the MAT/governing board and SENCO every year.

The school will provide adequate resources for implementing plans, ensuring pupils are sufficiently supported.

During Ofsted inspections, the inspectorate may include the school's Accessibility Plan as part of their review.

The MAT/LA will prepare accessibility strategies based on the same principles as the school's Accessibility Plan.

The Accessibility Plan will detail any barriers which are hindering the opportunities for pupils with SEND. The aim of the plan is to take appropriate measures in order to overcome these barriers, allowing all pupils equal opportunities.

Wherever possible, teaching staff will adapt their lesson plans and the curriculum to allow all pupils to reach their full potential and receive the support they need.
